Mr. Alan Chua

*APAC Head of Junior Talent
Bank of America*

“Hong Kong Federation of Business Students (HKFBS) was established in 1985. Since then, it has become an integral part of the business landscape by nurturing business undergraduates through the wide range of activities it organizes. As such, it is an honour and privilege to collaborate with HKFBS. This brings me tremendous joy and immense satisfaction as I get the opportunity to interact with bright future talent and it is undoubtedly wonderful to see the next generation taking an active role in shaping the economy.

This year, we jointly organize Bank of America Business Administration Paper 2022 on the topic of “Future Green Talent”. This is an important issue that is worth focusing on and we are extremely pleased to facilitate the discussion on a wider scale. The past few years have been different and unquestionably created a new norm in terms of working arrangements. Therefore, we are thrilled to host this event in our office physically and we look forward to meeting up and networking with students then.

In conclusion, I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations to HKFBS for its achievements and its impact on business undergraduates. I am confident that HKFBS will continue to grow and thrive in the years to come, and I look forward to seeing all that it will achieve in the future.”

FOREWORD

Dr. Jacky Tang

*Managing Director
Goldman Sachs*

“It is applaudable for Hong Kong Federation of Business Students’ dedication to connecting and bringing together over 20,000 future business leaders from 10 local business schools in Hong Kong. HKFBS has been doing a phenomenal job to prepare these future pillars with the skills they need to thrive in this ever-changing business world.

I am grateful that I have been the mentor of HKFBS Mentorship Programme over the past few years. Through interacting with my mentees, I saw their energy, ambition, and determination to become successful business leaders.

With Hong Kong being an international financial hub, we need more future business leaders and talents to maintain our competitive edge and the international status as one of the best places to work and do business.

In today’s dynamic business environment, the role of HKFBS has become increasingly important. HKFBS provides the platform, resources, and network for polish business undergraduates. I strongly encourage all of you to participate and learn from the activities HKFBS organized. I reckon this would be in the interest of your career development and help contribute to the development of Hong Kong.

I wish every success to HKFBS in its future endeavours and I look forward to working closely with you and your members over the coming year ahead.”

FOREWORD

Ms. Chan Chun Yan, Natalie

*President
Hong Kong Federation of Business Students
Session 2022-2023*

“Action is the foundational key to all success” - the quote from the influential artist, Pablo Picasso, has always been one that I hold close to my heart as I embark on the journey of leading HKFBS.

Since its establishment in 1985, HKFBS has endeavoured to support local business undergraduates in developing their future careers. Our diligence has gained recognition among top-notch individuals and firms across the business and academic fields. With an ever-growing membership base, we continue to strive for excellence in serving the future pillars of our society.

To carry on with the legacy of our predecessors, we prepared a series of innovative activities for our members. Our Federation keeps abreast of the latest trends in the commercial world in order to organise the most practical events. This year, we are proud to announce our first partnership with the HKUST Web 3.0 Labs in co-organising Web3.0 Global Business Case Challenge 2022, a case competition to promote the exchange of ideas regarding blockchain, decentralised technology, Metaverse, and Web3.0.

With relaxing social distancing measures, we are excited to offer more in-person opportunities for our members. We have witnessed great success in such events, including the University Consultation Day, Orientation Camp Visits, and Mentorship Programme 2022. I would like to acknowledge the exceptional efforts made by my fellow Executive Committee members, who demonstrated their perseverance in the face of unprecedented situations. We will bear the mission and vision of our Federation in mind as we continue the second half of our term of office.

On behalf of HKFBS, I wish you all a delightful and prosperous year ahead.

STEPPING STONE TO SUCCESS SCHEME 2022

FIRM VISIT SERIES gives students a unique opportunity to watch and learn about the day-to-day operations of a variety of notable organisations. The Series will help students identify their areas of interest, allowing them to get a head start and plan for their future professional development.

MENTORSHIP PROGRAMME 2022 aims at bringing participants on a remarkable mentorship journey. With the guidance and empowerment by our network of passionate, professional and experienced elites, participants can see a future beyond what they see in themselves. By exchanging fruitful ideas, both mentors and mentees would gain inspiration from one another amid the programme.

WORKSHOP SERIES is a kaleidoscope of thought-provoking sessions where students can get in-depth business knowledge and competitive abilities. They also provide students with opportunities to deal with issues and people outside of the classroom, which are critical in the business world.

NETWORKING SERIES aims to link business undergraduates with experts from a variety of industries. The Series is made up of regular professional networking events that allow business students to socialise and expand their networks.

EXECUTIVE FORUM FOR ELITES intends to connect business undergraduates with influential business professionals. Students can learn from business professionals and acquire eye-opening experiences and ideas from one another by participating in debates regarding the current business landscape.

CONSULTATION DAY 2022

University Consultation Day (UCD) was held on July 16, 2022. Being the sole consultation event intended for current senior secondary school students, UCD provides a comprehensive understanding of business programmes from the 10 local universities for them in 1 day.

This year, we are more than delighted to have the official support from the business schools of the 10 local universities. During the event, admission talks and programme brochures regarding 10 universities were featured and individual consultation sessions were arranged to address the attendees' specific questions.

We have also invited three Guest Speakers (Mr. Kenny Lim, Founder of Jupas Calculator; Mr. Andy Yeung, BAFS Teacher of Beacon College; and a counsellor from SI-UK) to share about JUPAS planning, overseas education, as well as the career prospects of business students.
